Free World Charter founder Colin Turner to feature at 10th annual Z-Day in Germany

March 5, 2018 – Irish author, activist and founder of The Free World Charter, Colin Turner has been invited as guest speaker to this year's annual Zeitgeist Day event, taking place on April 7, 15:00-20:00 CET in Frankfurt, Germany.

Now in its 10th year, the Zeitgeist Day (Z-Day) event provides a platform for promoting and discussing sustainability, global unity and a post-scarcity society, and features prominent speakers from various similarly aligned groups to the founding Zeitgeist Movement.

Colin Turner's presentation, Into The Open Economy, based on his non-fiction work of the same name, will discuss the flaws of the current monetary system and propose logical working alternatives that are aligned with the principles of the Free World Charter.

Colin comments, "The world owes an enormous debt of gratitude to luminaries like Peter Joseph, not just for highlighting root causes of social and environmental issues in his movie series, but for following through on his work to create a global movement and series of high profile cultural events, now in their tenth year. I, for one, am deeply privileged to be invited to share in this momentous event and hopefully spread some more ideas that can help bring forth this positive, better future for everybody."

Zeitgeist Day takes place on April 7, 15:00-20:00 CET in Frankfurt, Germany. Tickets: <https://www.tickettailor.com/events/zdayglobal/143731>
